

ARLIN BUYERT
2017

The Curve

men and women sitting on the curb bicycles parked and chained four striding with purpose but the rest of us:
lost in the shadows of life standing, silent, waiting, worried about America becoming something we don't know, something we don't like as we are discouraged to make America great again.